By order of Republican County Contion. GEO. Z. FRENCH, Chairman.

W. H, GERKEN, Secy.

The Raleighites have base ball on the brain.

NO NEWS, is the answer on all sides, to-day.

A NOISELESS hinge for the back doors of saloons has been invented.

EXTENDED.—The time for opening bids for the repairs of Long Creek bridge is extended to Wednesday, the 28th inst.

SEE advertisement of A. D. Cazaux, Agent. The steamship Benefactor will leave New York for this port on Saturday next, 23d instant.

REMEMBER the meeting to be held this evening, at the corner of Sixth and Castle streets. Let there be a big turn out.

A SNUG SUM was realized from the "Rosette Party," for the benefit of the First Baptist Sunday School, which was held last evening at the residence of Wm. A. French, Esq.

REPAIRING.—The steamer Waccamaw is on the opposite side of the river undergoing a thorough overhauling, and in a few days she will be ready for excursion parties.

A HEARING.—James Williams, the mail robber, had a partial hearing before Commissioner Cassidey this morning; he was remanded to jail, there to await a final examination, which will take place in a day or two.

EVERYTHING is quiet around the City Hall to-day. The Mayor will return to night, and as there are a number of cases requiring his attention, we will be able to procure an item from this quarter to-morrow, whereas we are now unable to do.

NOMINATED.—Col. Neill McKay, of Harnett county, at the Convention held in Fayetteville on yesterday, was unanimously nominated as the Republican candidate for Congress from this District, as will be seen by our special telegram this morning.

NOT "SINGER'S."—A friend of ours informed us that he had two Canary birds, named respectively Wheeler & Wilson, and upon our enquiry as to why named Wheeler & Wilson? He replied, "Because they are not Singers'." A "sharp chap."

MOVEMENT.—A movement is on foot among the clerks of this city to take into consideration the matter of requesting their employers to close their places of business at sundown, commencing June 1st. We hope our merchants will acquiesce in their request, for they certainly stand in need of rest and recreation.

ARRIVED AND DEPARTED.—The tug Belle Virginia, Captain Henry Baker, from Norfolk, came into port this morning for the purpose of towing a large government flat that has been lying in our waters for some time to Norfolk.—She only tarried long enough to make fast the flat, and then proceeded on her return voyage.

CAMP MEETING.—The much talked of camp meeting, under the auspices of the members of St. Stephen's church, commenced to-day at a point about 12 miles up the Cape Fear river. The steamer Juniper has been chartered to convey persons desirons of attending; She went up on her first trip to-day, carrying quite a large number.

The barge Experiment, we understand, will go up on Sunday next for the accommodation of those who find it impossible to attend during the week

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.—Quite a number of delegates are in the city, in attendance at the Episcopal Convention, which convened in St. John's Church, this morning.

Much business is to be transacted, and we regret that we are unable to publish the morning's proceedings.

INGENUITY.—We were shown a quilt this morning, at the City Hall, constructed by one of the police, James Harriss, which for ingenuity in this line, beats anything we have ever seen.

It is composed of many different colors of fabrics with figures of a lion, balloon, the "All-Seeing Eye," the "open hand," the "three links," and many other representations. It certainly evidences great ingenuity, and is really beautiful.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—The Board met this morning at 10 o'clock, according to adjournment.

Ordered, that Isham Boney, Rufus Collins, David Johnson, John J. Moore, and Edward Rivenbark be and are hereby appointed a jury to determine boundary line of the lands of Mrs. Martha Johnson in Union Township, as required by law; said jury to meet at Leesburg on Saturday, May 30th, at 9 o'clock.

Ordered, that the petition from the tax payers of Caswell township, praying that a valuation of real and personal property be made, whereby they could be enabled to pay expenses for the ensuing year, be complied with, and a valuation of $200,000 be made with a tax of 10 cents on the $100 valuation.

Ordered that an error having appeared in the awards for the repairs of Long Creek Bridge, that the Chairman be authorized to advertise for bids until May 28th.

The Board then declared a recess until 10 o'clock to-morrow (Thursday) morning.

A Moneyed Rat.

The New Orleans Picayune gives this story prominence: "Some time ago, when the river was high and the gutters full of water, an enormous rat, gray with age and fat as an alderman, crawled out of the Canal street gutter and rushed into the store of Messrs. Morrison & Woodward, bearing in his mouth something that fluttered about like a piece of paper. He was tired and bedraggled, and deposited his burden behind the first box and sat down to rest. One of the gentlemen present made a dash at his ratship, and away he went, leaving behind the article that he had brought in his mouth, and which proved to be a five dollar greenback. Whether the rat intended this as a contribution to the sufferers by the overflow, or was himself moving to avoid the encroaching waters, we are unable to say, but certain it is that he has not yet returned to claim the property."

Fallen Man and Women.

Man, sunk below his natural level hates and affects to despise the height where he has walked. Woman, fallen from her fair estate, looks ever back to it with longing and regretful eyes. He proclaims himself not worse than his fellows; endeavors to pull those down to his level. She admits her fault; deplores it; is glad there are women so much better and far more fortunate than she; she strives to have hope for the future, and listens with bounding blood to every voice that brings back to her the spotless past. Never does she quite renounce morality, humanity claims her to the last. Miserable, down trodden, wholly forsaken, she looks up from the dross and mire, and hears the lark of her love still singing at the gates of heaven

A correspondent of the New York Tribune is evidently not a believer in turkeys. In answer to the question, "Why were Job's turkeys poor?" he says: "Because he had no neighbors upon whose crops they could get fat; and thereby hangs a tale, many a tale in fact. For turkeys are like bees—you cannot keep them at home.—Where grain is raised, turkeys are an intolerable nuisance, and for every dollar they bring into the farmer's wife's pocket they take five dollars out of the farmer's or his neighbor's. Upon grass fields where grass-hoppers are plentiful, or upon tobacco fields where the frightful tobacco worm is abundant, turkeys may pay for their feed and depredations upon the grain-fields at all seasons of the year; but I do not believe that even at $1 a pound, turkeys, as usually raised, ever pay their cost.—New Eng. Farmer.

A Sentimental young man, in speaking to his father's coachman of a neighboring family, remarked that "they were happy until sorrow suddenly came and left her traces there." The coachman looked puzzled, but finally responded: "Indeed, sir, an' what did she do with the rest of the harness?"

STATE ITEMS.

The State Council of Friends of Temperance meets in Winston on the 19th of June.

The North Carolina Medical Convention assembled in Charlotte yesterday, Tuesday, the 19th instant.

Silas Sheppard, of Pitt county, was sentenced last week to the Penitentiary for five years for horse stealing.

The Milton Chronicle says that it is a positive fact that there is a woman in Person county who sheds her finger and toe nails every month.

Mackerel are said to be plentiful in the waters of Beaufort harbor this season, and old fishermen say that this summer will be one of the most successful fishing seasons ever known.

The New-Berne Times says that the U. S. Survey schooner Bowditch, engaged for the past few months in the survey of the waters in the vicinity of Beaufort, has been ordered to the Cape Fear section, in compliance with an order for the re-survey of the western entrance to the Cape Fear river.

Says the Raleigh News: A correspondent, writing to us from near Ransom's Bridge, in Halifax county, says: "On Thursday last, about two o'clock, there was a tremendous explosion in the heavens, which was heard for many miles, resembling more the sound of cannon than of thunder, reminding an old soldier of war times. The family of Mr. Lit Arrington and others were sitting in the porch, and heard the roar for some minutes, followed by a whizzing sound, when a piece of jet black stone, weighing some three pounds, fell in the yard. This latter fact is a mystery that cannot be solved, and the people hereabouts are much disturbed thereat.—Cannot some scientist explain the occurrence?"

Another Strange Case of Hydrophobia.

About twenty-one years ago, a daughter of Peter Hawk, late Commissioner of Monroe county, Penn., was bitten by a mad dog. The animal bit several cattle and dogs, and they immediately showed symptoms of the disease. Mr. Hawk, who resides in Pleasant Valley and is quite a wealthy man, called physicians to see his child, and everything was done to prevent an attack of the horrid disease. She escaped, grew to be a wonan, and was married, but still no decided symptoms appeared. Last week, however, the Much Chunk Coal Gazette says, she was seized with a fit, and became dangerously ill of hydrophobia. A number of physicians and many friends of the family visited her, and she became so much better that it was thought on Saturday that the crisis had passed. But she was taken worse on Monday, and after much suffering, died on Tuesday. She was conscious just before she expired.

Maxims for a Yonng Man.

Keep good company or none.
Never be idle. If your hands cannot be usefully employed, attend to the cultivation of your mind.
Always speak the truth.
Make few promises.
Live up to your engagements.
Keep your own secrets, if you have any.
When you speak to a person, look him in the face.
Good company and good conversation are the very sinews of virtue.
Good character is above all things else.
Never listen to loose or idle conversation.
You had better be poisoned in your blood than your principles.
Your character cannot be essentially injured except by your own acts.

Never burn kindly-written letters, the mute utterances of those afar, yet dear, whose faces you may never look upon again. Remember how many a little notion in tinware they will procure.

Impertinent dandy, (a stranger.)—"May I have the honor to accompany you, miss?" Cool young lady—"Certainly; but keep behind, in your proper place. I discharged my last footman for impertinence."

A Down Easter believes there is nothing like advertising. He lost his pocket-book recently, advertised his loss in the local newspaper, and next morning went down into his own cellar and found it on the floor.

A Tennessee lady presented her husband with twins, and in due season added triplets. "Dear me!" exclaimed an astonished neighbor, "I s'pose Mrs. Stebbins will have quadrupeds next, and then centipedes!"

A gentleman met a half-witted lad in the road, and placing in one of his hands a sixpence and a penny, asked him which of the two he would choose. The lad replied that he "wouldn't be greedy; he'd keep the littlest."

A committee of the Legislature find that the specifications were not fulfilled by the contractors in the construction of the reservoir.

Fifty thousand dollars have been contributed for the relief of the victims of the flood.

It appears that the walls of the reservoir were required to be built three feet below ground. The contractors based them on the suface, making the calamity a mere question of time. The contractors will be hanged if caught.

The emtpy reservoir exposes the villainy practiced by the contractors.

The bodies found yesterday were nude and much disfigured. It will require a week to find all. The poor people are earning money by searching for the models and brass. Office of County Commissioners,

NEW HANOVER COUNTY,
Wilmington, N. C., May 13, 1874.

IN PURSUANCE OF SECTION 16 OF AN act to Raise Revenue, ratified February 14 th, 1874, the Board of County Commissioners of New Hanover county will meet at the Court House in the city of Wilmington, on the

THIRD MONDAY IN MAY, 1874

and then and there proceed to revise the tax lists and valuation reported to them, and complete the lists, by computing the tax payable by each person and affixing the same opposite his name. The session of the Board will continue for the space of three working days.

The following duties devolve upon the Board:

1st. They shall hear all persons objecting to the valuation of their property, or to the amount of tax charged against them.

2. They shall have power to raise the valuation upon such property as they shall deem unreasonably low. For the purpose above indicated the Board of Commissioners are empowered to summons and examine witnesses, and to correct the abstracts of the Township Boards of Trustees.

AS MAY BE JUST AND RIGHT, and so the valuation of similar property throughout the county shall be as near uniform as possible.

After the Tax Lists are made up and placed in the hands of the Sheriff it will become very difficult to make any alterations in them. Therefore all persons interested will please attend to this important matter.

The frequent applications to the County Commissioners heretofore for relief and correction of errors—almost entirely the fault of the tax-payers—has become an evil of great magnitude, costing the county much more to correct errors than the whole amount involved. Notice is now given that no alteration will be made after the time expires except in accordance with the letter of the law.

FOR CONGRESS,

NEILL McKAY,

OF HARNETT.

FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

Thomas R. Purnell,

OF FORSYTHE.

Have the Democratic Party Principles?

What are the principles of the Democratic party? "Anything to beat Grant" for a while seemed to embrace the whole of their creed. But as has been said of them in days gone by, they retain their time-honored "seven principles, five loaves and two fishes." Back pay, salary grab, at one time under a cloud with "the great unwashed," as will be seen by reference to the resolutions of the last Democratic Legislature, must have had a "silver lining," with perhaps a "gold edge," when the same Democrats whom Mr. Waddell denounced as being as weak as whiskey that had not strength enough to run down hill, should unanimously declare him to be their first choice as a candidate for Congress in the third Congressional district.

"Resolutions on the subject of the increase of pay of Senators and Representatives."

"1. Resolved, That the action of the forty-second Congress, in its closing hours, by which the pay of Senators and Representatives was increased twenty-five hundred dollars per annum, and said increase made to relate to the first day of the term of said Congress, was indefensible on principle, and tended to bring our government into disrepute.

"2. That the Executive of the nation, in approving the measure, made himself a party to the wrong.

"3. That the most fitting reparation which can be made by Congress for the injury and wrong complained of, is a prompt recognition of that injury and wrong, and the immediate repeal of the law.

"Ratified 10th day of December, 1873."

These were the resolutions that called for Mr. Waddell's famous letter, in which he characterised the Legislature as the weakest body of men ever assembled in North Carolina.

Yet some of these same members of the same Legislature proclaim at Magnolia in a Congressional District Convention, that Mr. Waddell is their choice for re-election to Congress, and that, too, after Mr. Waddell had voted against the repeal of the obnoxious act of Congress, and the only Southern member that we now recollect who voted against the repeal. How can Mr. Waddell and Mr. Waddell's friends in the face of a resolution of the Democratic Legislature, which declares the back pay to be "indefensible on principle, and tended to bring our government into disrepute," urge his claims to popular favor, except upon the ground that they disregard "principle" and desire "to bring our government into disrepute," If that is the issue upon which this so-called Conservative party place their claims to popular favor and popular support, degenerate, indeed, must be the times, and fearfully corrupt must be the people if they succeed.

If back pay was "indefensible on principle" in 1873, is it not equally indefensible on principle in 1874? Or did the Convention at Magnolia mean to declare to the people of the Third Congressional District that they had no principles? No wonder the building in which they assembled tottered well nigh to its fall.

"What brought you to prison, my colored friend, said a Yankee to a nigger.

"Two constables, sah."

"Yes, but I mean had intemperance anything to do with it?"

"Yes, sah; dey was bofe of 'em drunk."

One of our fashionable youths, says an exchange, donned his first silk hat and cigar, Saturday evening. He got along well enough with the cigar; but he had to give up the hat—it made him sick at the stomach.

The story is told of a deacon, who, when at the house of a devoted woman, was asked to offer prayer, and excused himself by saying that he was not the spiritual, but the financial, deacon.

Education of Women.

It is proposed, just now, to assimilate the education of girls more and more to that of boys. If that means that girls are merely to learn more lessons, and to study what their brothers are taught, then it is to be hoped, at least by physiologists and patriots, that the scheme will sink into that limbo whither, in a free and tolerably rational country, all imperfect and ill-considered schemes are sure to gravitate. But if the proposal be a bona fide one—then it must be borne in mind that in the public schools of England, and in all private schools, I presume, which take their tone from them, cricket and football are more or less compulsory, being considered integral parts of an Englishman's education; and that they are likely to remain so, in spite of all reclamations: because masters and boys alike know that games do not, in the long run, interfere with a boy's work; that the same boy will very often excel in both; that the games keep him in health for his work, that the spirit with which he takes to his games when in the lower school, is a fair test of the spirit with which he will take to his work when he rises into the higher school; and that nothing is worse for a boy than to fall into that loafing, tuck-shop hunting set, who neither play hard nor work hard, and are ussually extravagant, and often vicious. Moreover, they know well that games conduce, not merely to physical, but to moral health; that in the playing-field boys acquire virtues which no books can give them: not merely daring and endurance, but better still, temper, self-restraint, fairness, honor, unenvious approbation of another's success, and all that "give and take" of life which stand a man in such good stead when he goes forth into the world, and without which, indeed, his success is always maimed and partial.

Now, if the promoters of higher education for women will compel girls to any training analagous to our public-school games; if, for instance. they will insist on that most natural and wholesome of all exercise, dancing, in order to develop the lower half of the body; on singing, to expand the lungs and regulate the breath; and on some games—ball or what not—which will insure that raised chest, and upright carriage, and general strength of the upper torso, without which full oxygenation of the blood, and therefore general health, is impossible; if they will sternly forbid tight stays, high heels, and all which interferes with free growth and free motion; if they will consider carefully all which has been written on the "half-time system" by Mr. Chadwick and others; and accept the certain physical law that in order to renovate the brain day by day, the growing creature must have plenty of fresh air and play, and that the child who learns for four hours and plays for four hours, will learn more, and learn it more easily, than the child who learns for the whole eight hours: if, in short, they will teach girls not merely to understand the Greek tongue, but to copy somewhat of the Greek physical training, of that "music and gymnastic" which helped to make the cleverest race of the Old World the ablest race likewise; then they will earn the gratitude of the patriot and the physiologist by doing their best to stay the downward tendencies of the physique, and therefore ultimately of the morale, in the coming generation of Englishwomen.—Charles Kingsley.

Republicans must be blind, indeed, not to discover signs of disorganization on the part of their political opponents. The Democratic Whig-Conservative leaders are in real distress, and their editors rave about "independent" candidates, calling them all sorts of bad names. Says the Raleigh News, "The man who raises the standard of independent candidature in revolt to the decision of his party conventions, is either a traitor to his professions of party fealty, or exhibits a disgusting lust for office." Just so. But the fact is there are so many highly intelligent and virtuous gentlemen belonging to the Democratic-Whig-Conservative party, that there are not offices enough to go around; and there must necessarily be some escape valve for pent-up ambition. The "hydra-headed monster of Radicalism," (as the News calls us,) is likely to achieve still further successes; for notwithstanding we Republicans wrangle a little at odd times, we close up our ranks when an election approaches. Republicans ought to be proud of their organization and discipline, which carries terror into the ranks of their political foes.—New North State.

Railroad Racing.

Between Wyandotte and the Grand Trunk Junction the tracks of the Lake Shore and Canada Southern Roads run alongside of each other, and the Wayne County (Mich.) Courier says that many races occur there between trains on the two roads. There is a sort of wager made whereby the engineer who is beaten a train length twice in one week shall forfeit $50. Wednesday afternoon last trains on both roads left Ecorse together, and for some distance both run slowly, each waiting for the other to quicken the gait. At last, when they found they were losing too much time, each pulled out, and both engines did their best, neither gaining on the other. The run of six miles was made in eight minutes, notwithstanding the slow time made at the start. No advantage had been gained, when the Lake Shore engine was obliged to pull up at the target at the Grand Trunk. Both trains were crowded with passengers, and great excitement was manifested by them.

A Brass Band As A Curative Agent.

An account is given by a Massachusetts paper of a singular illness afflicting a little girl in its neigborhood. It appears that a young daughter of Mr. Alfred Walker, of North Adams, six years of age, suddenly lost all control over herself while sitting at the dinner-table, about three weeks ago, and began to throw dishes on the floor and food over her shoulder, apparently unconscious of what she was doing. Since then some portion of her body has been in almost constant motion, and at times this motion is so violent that force has to be used to hold her in bed; and yet she seems to suffer no pain. At times she has the use of her voice, but usually she is unable to speak, and is apparently wholly or partially unconscious. When food is givern her it is necessary to hold her head, and her jaws come together at times with sufficient force to break the spoon with which she is fed. There is much in the disease which seems like St. Vitus's dance, but it is not so called. A few evenings sinee the child was very low, and the doctor recommended that the band be requested to play near the house to see if she could not be aroused. Accordingly a brass band played under her window, and the result seemed beneficial for after the first shock of the heavy music the child tried to gather her stupefied senses, and to give some regularity to her motions as if trying to keep time, and during the remainder of the night she was quieter, and rested better than for some time. At last accounts the child was no better, and it was feared that her strength could not long hold out against the disease.

Pay Cash.

Oh, how hard it is to pay bills!—Everybody knows this. It is such a pleasant thing, too, to have money in your pocket, and there is no way by which this desirable result can be secured except by spending less than you receive. Nothing assists in this calculation so much as paying for what you get when you get it.

When you run up bills at the butcher's, the baker's, the milliner's and dressmaker's, you never know exactly what you can afford. It is very hard to keep track of all your accumulated indebtedness, and you are tempted to spend the money lying idle in your hands for things which you can do just as well without, and in this way incommode yourself when the day for the settlement of bills arrives.

Every tradesman knows that people buy more freely on credit than for cash. When the pocket-book is drawn upon every time that a want is to be satisfied, there is to be a true appreciation of the value of what you give, as well as of what you get; but when things are not paid for at the time, there is a less appreciation of the cost than of the purchase.

In house-keeping, especially, the cash system is the cheapest and pleasantest. It prevents a great deal of cheating and waste, and saves the mistress of the house no end of trouble. Cash customers buy cheapest, and are the most desirable. Pay cash.

A Worthy Deed.

Under the heading of "Worthy of Record." Mr. R. W. Bird relates this creditable incident in the Dedham (Mass.) Transcript: "A few days ago I received from a friend a note saying that many years ago he borrowed money of me, and if I would take into Boston a memorandum of the amount he would pay it. I found a note, due Feb. 16th, 1863, for $150, which I carried to my friend, whereupon he gave me his check for $500—being for full amount of principal and interest for eleven years and two and one half months. The name of the gentleman is Samuel B. Noyes, of Canton, Register in Bankruptcy. 'O si sic omnes!' I am the more impressed with his rare act of honesty from the fact that in a business life of over forty one years I have lost by bad debts—largely of a confidential nature—more money than I am worth to-day. This is the first dollar I have ever received of a debt from which the debtor had received a legal discharge. So shines a good in this naughty world."

A youg girl, daughter of Edward Hull, who resides near Mount Airy, met a terrible death on Monday night, the 11th inst. It appears that the fire from a new ground had blown and caught in a tree. The girls, three in number, commenced cutting the tree down, thinking that by so doing they could prevent the fire from spreading and doing further damage, but before succeeding in felling the tree the fire broke out in another place, and two of the girls ceased chopping the tree and went to put it out, while the other continued to chop upon the tree, which suddenly fell with a terrible crash striking one of the girls and crushing her to the earth, literally grinding her head into a perfect jelly. The other two girls escaped unhurt, and were, in an instant, by the side of their mangled, bleeding and dead sister. This is an extremely horrible affair, and especially so when we take into consideration that it has been only a very short time since her mother committed suicide by cutting her throat.

A genius was explaining the utility of an India rubber ship which he was inventing, when an old salt exclaimed, "No, no, it will never do. An India rubber ship would rub out all the lines of latitude and longitude, to say nothing of the equator!"

MARSHAL'S OFFICE,

WILMINGTON, N, C., April 22, 1874.

NOTICE.

I WOULD MOST RESPECTFULLY CALL the attention of the citizens to the fact that the warm and sickly season is near at hand, and it becomes my duty to adopt the most stringent sanitary measures at this particular time to preserve the health of the city and prevent the introduction of disease that may originate from foul and unwholesome matter, filth, garbage. trash and refuse matter which has a tendency to create unwholesome and offensive odors. In order to prevent as far as possible the spread of those diseases peculiarly incident to this season of the year I would most respectfully solicit the co-operation of the citizens generally in placing our city in such a sanitary condition as to render it as far as practicable impregnable, at least to those diseases which originate from foul and unwholesome matter, To this end the entire force of the city will be employed in cleansing, draining, cleaning, disinfecting and removing trash, &c., for at least the next fifteen or twenty days. All persons are requested to have the trash, offal, refuse matter, &c., cleaned from their premises and placed upon the streets, whence they will be removed immediately. When it is convenient please use boxes or barrels.

Persons needing disinfectants can have the same free of charge by calling at my office.

The health officers, designated by a yellow rosette, may be notified of any stagnant water standing upon any lot, or damp cellar or anything that would impair the health of the city, and any complaint lodged at this office shall receive prompt attention.

Believing that a proper sanitary condition adopted now, at this early season, will insure a healthy summer I earnestly solicit the aid and co-operation of all the good citizens to accomplish this good end.

Respectfully, &c., GEO W. PRICE, Jr.,
april 23—tf City Marshal.

The Republican Party in North Carolina.

PLATFORM.

The following is the platform of the Republican party in North Carolina, adopted in Convention at Raleigh, April 17, 1872:

The Republicans of North Carolina in Convention assembled:

Resolve 1. That the platform and principles of the Republican party of North Carolina, as heretofore enunciated in its Conventions, are hereby re-affirmed, and events have proved that their practical enforcement is essential to the welfare of the country, and to the maintainance of the rights, interests and liberties of the people

2. That the administration of President Grant meets with our hearty and unqualified approval, and our delegates to the National Republican Convention to assemble at Philadelphia on the 5th day of June next, are instructed to vote for his re-nomination to the Presidency of the United States.

3. That the Republican party of North Carolina favors as rapid a diminution and as early an extinction of all internal revenue taxation as the exigencies of the Government will permit, for the reason that the details of its collection are necessarily offensive, and, in many respects, oppressive to our people.

4. That all internal revenue taxes on distillation of fruit ought to be abolished.

5. That the Republican party of North Carolina recommend to the Congress of the United States the passage of a general amnesty bill, and the adoption of all necessary measures for the enforcement and protection of the civil and political rights of all classes of American citizens.

6. That in a free and representative government, we recognize the paramount obligation to provide efficiently for the general education, of the people, and we favor such legislation as will accomplish that end: that we respectfully recommend and ask of the national government, such aid, by the provision of public fund or the donation of public land to the purposes of establishing schools in the several States, as will secure to the masses of the people of all classes the benefits of a liberal education.

7. That we full endorse the acts of Congress, passed to secure equal rights and protection to the citizens of the United States, in the several States; and we respectfully recommend a continuance of the present laws and the adoption of such further legislation as will more certainly secure to the citizens, full and practical enjoyment of all their rights, privileges and liberties.

8. In the opinion of this convention, the Democratic majority of the last legislature, by consolidating into one act its numerous propositions to amend the State Constitution, endeavoring to force upon the people a false issue, and to force them into the adoption of obnoxious amendments, and inasmuch as all these propositions must be submitted to the next Legislature for ratification, before the same can be referred to the people; therefore,

Resolve 1. That the amendments proposed as a whole do not meet the approval of the Republican party, because their adoption would subvert essential principles of the existing Constitution.

2. That Republicans can endorse a portion of said amendments and the next General Assembly may adopt such of them as shall seem best for the general welfare.

9. That we cordially endorse the administration of Gov. Caldwell, and recognize the fact that our people may rely upon his firmness in upholding their interests and defending their rights; and we heartily thank him for resisting the revolutionary purposes of those who designed to deprive the citizen of the protection afforded by the Constitution.

10. That forgetful of personal preferences we pledge ourselves to support earnestly and without reserve, the candidates presented by this convention, believing that in unity alone is strength, and that principles are more important than men to the republicans of North Carolina.

The following is the plan of organization which was adopted:

Resolved, That hearafter the organization of the republican party of North Carolina shall be as follows:

1. A State Executive Committee of eleven members to be appointed by the presidents of the State Convention; and the presidents of the convention shall be ex-offico on of the members of such committee.

2 Congressional District Committee for each district, to be composed of one member from each county, to be appointed by the Congressional District Convention.

3. A County Executive Committee to be composed of one member from each township, to be appointed by the County Convention.

Resolved, That the present organization shall continue to exist until the new one shall be effected.

Resolved, That the representation in the county convention shall be in accordance with the plan of organization of the party heretofore adopted.

The State executive committee is as follows:

I E West, of Craven,
T B Keogh, of Guilford,
N W Lillington, of Davie,
S F Phillips, of Wake, ex-officio,
R W Logan, of Rutherford,
S T Carrow, of Beaufort,
J W Hood, of Mecklenburg,
J H Harris, Wake,
R B Ellis, of Wake,
G L Mabson, of New Hanover,

The POST is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the up to the time of going to press,

LATEST NEWS,

TELEGRAPHIC,
BY MAIL,
COMMERCIAL AND LOCAL

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city.

Politically the POST is

UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the POST, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

AGRICULTURAL,
MECHANICAL, or COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE POST.

THE POST

is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.

Prospectus for 1874—Seventh year

THE ALDINE

An Illustrated Monthly journal, universally admitted to be Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or Music Stores

THE ALDINE while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos, besides!

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.

The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art centres of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained. The common prejudice in favor of "steel plates," is rapidly yielding to a more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality with greater facility of production. The woodcuts of THE ALDINE possess all the delicacy and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate, while they afford a better rendering of the artist's original.

To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other decent representations of the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALEINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. Thus the subscribers to THE ALDINE will at a trifling cost, enjoy in his own home the pleasure and refining influences of true art.

The quarterly tinted plates for 1874 will be by Thos. Moran and J. D. Woodward.

The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attraction any of its predecessors.

PREMIUM FOR 1874.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures were painted in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent "The East" and "The West," One is a view in the White Mountins New Hampshire the other gives the Cliffs, of Green River, Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves in a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates, and are in size (12 x 16) and appearance exact fac-similes of the originals. The presentation of a worthy example of America's greatest landscape painter to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a bold but peculiarly happy idea, and its successful realization is attested by the following testimonial, over the signature of Mr. Moran himself.

NEWARK, N.J., Sept 20th,

Messrs. JAMES SUTTON & Co.

Gentlemen,—I am delighted with proofs the color of your chromos. They wonderfully successful representation by mechanical process of the original paintings.

Very respectfully,
(Signed,) THOS. MORAN.

These chromos are in every sense American, They are by an original American process, with material of American manufacture, from designs of American scenery by an American painter, and presented to subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal. If no better because of all this they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can inspire, and neither are they any the worse if by reason of peculiar facilites of production they cost the publishers only a trifle, while equal in every respect to other chromos that are sold singly for double the subscription price of THE ALDINE. Persons of taste will prize these pictures for themselves—not for the price they did or did not cost, and will appreciate the enterprise that renders their distribution possible.

If any subscribers should indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "Thoughts of Home," a new and beautiful chromo, 14 x 20 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longings of his heart.

TERMS.

$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free.

For 50 Cents Extra, the chromos will be sent, mounted, varnished, and prepaid by mail.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificated is given, bearing the facsimile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.

THE SUN.

—:o:—

WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND DAILY.

THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recommendation, but the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thousands more are briefly as follows.

It is a first rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when o moment, and always presented in a clear intelligible, and interesting manner.

It is a first rate family paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, but containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and scrupulous taste

It is a first rate story paper. The best tales and romances of current literature are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages.

It is a first rate agricultural paper. The most fresh and instructive articles on agricultural topics regularly appear in this department.

It is an independent political paper, belonging to no party and wearing no color.—It fights for principle, and for the election of the best men to office. It especially devotes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country and threaten to undermine republican institutions altogether. It has no fear of knaves, and asks no favors from their supporters.

It reports the fashions for the ladies and the markets for the men, especially the cattle markets, to which it pays particular attention.

Finally, it is the cheapest paper published. One dollar a year will secure it for any subscriber. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have THE WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Any one who sends a single dollar will get the paper for a year.

We have no traveling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty six columns. Only $1 00 a year. No discounts from this rule.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN.—Same size as the Daily Sun. $2 00 a pear. A discount of 20 per cent. to clubs of 10 or over.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four page newspaper of twenty eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription price 50 cents a month, or $6 00 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent. Address,

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.

A weekly magazine of sixty-four pages. THE LIVING AGE gives more than THREE AND A QUARTER THOUSAND double-column octavo pages of reading-matter yearly, forming four large volumes. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its great amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a satisfactory completeness attempted by no other publication, the best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Tales, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical, and Political Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature.

A NEW SERIES

Was begun Jan. 1, 1873, with entirely new Tales, already embracing Serial and Short Stories by distinguished English, French, German, and Russian authors; viz., Lord Lytton (Bulwer,) Erckmann-Chatrian, Ivan Turgenieff, Miss Thackeray, Mrs. Oliphant, Fritz Reuter, Mrs Parr (author of "Dorothy Fox") Julia Kavanagh, &c.

During the coming year, as heretofore, the choicest serial and short stories by the Leading Foreign Authors will be given, together will an amount unapproached by any other periodical in the world, of the best literary and scientific matter of the day, from the pens of the above-named and other foremost Essayists Scientists, Critics, Discoverers, and Editors, representing every department of knowledge and progress.

The importance of THE LIVING AGE to every American reader, as the only complete as well as fresh compilation of a generally inaccessible but indispensable current literature,—indispensable because it embraces the productions of THE ABLEST LIVING WRITERS in all branches of Literature, Science, Art, and Politics,—is sufficiently indicated by the following

OPINIONS.

"Reproduces the best thoughts of the best minds of the civilized world, upon all topics of living interest."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"In no other single publication can there be found so much of sterling literary excellence."—The Nation, New York.

"And the cheapest. A monthly that comes every week."—THE ADVANCE, CHICAGO.

"The ablest essays, the most entertaining stories, the finest poetry of the English language, are here gathered together."—Illinois State Journal.

"With it alone a reader may fairly keep up with all that is important in the literature, history, politics, and science of the day."—The Methodist, New York.

"In view of all the competitors in the field, I should certainly chose "The Living Age"—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher.

"The best periodical in America."—Rev. Dr. Cuyler.

"Has no equal in any country."—Phila. Press.

"Indispensable to every one who desires a thorough compendium of all that is admirable and noteworthy in the literary world."—Boston Post.
